

Haus der Geschichte Baden-Württemberg

ENGLISH

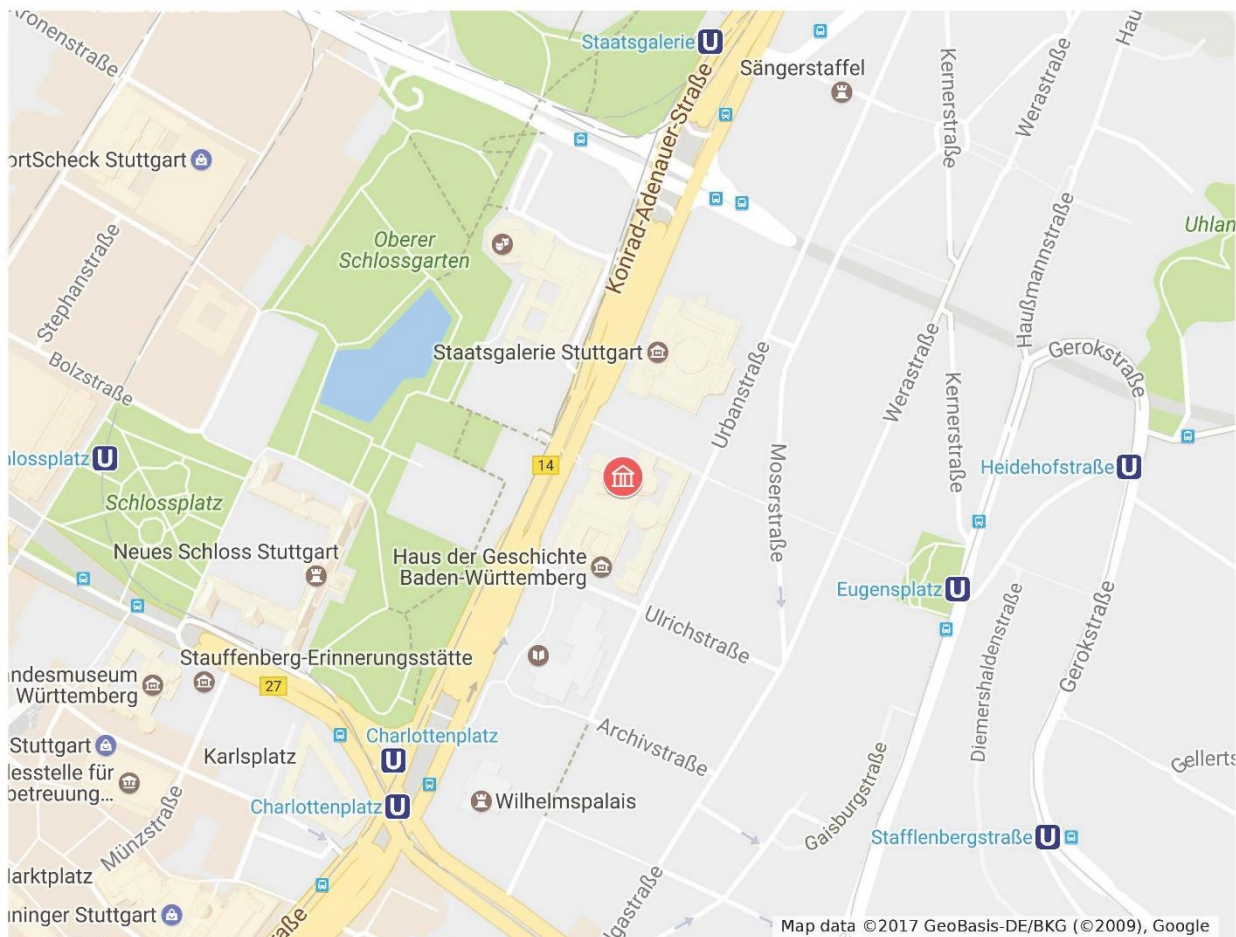

Lively history, presented in minute detail: The museum devoted to the history and politics of the region, has more than 200 years of the state's history on display. The museum's theme park provides an overview of the many facets of Baden-Württemberg — past and present — from business, to science, to religion.

The Haus der Geschichte Baden-Württemberg is open from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Tuesday to Sunday, with extended hours until 9 p.m. on Thursdays. The museum is closed on Mondays.

Admission for adults to the Permanent Exhibition is 5 Euros (discount tickets: 2.50 Euros) and 5 Euros for the Special Exhibition (discount tickets: 2.50 Euros). Combined tickets for both are 8 Euros (discount tickets: 4 Euros). Family rates: adults with children receive discount tickets. Admission is free for Refugees. Admission is free for children and school-age students.

Haus der Geschichte Stuttgart
Konrad-Adenauer-Str. 18
Stuttgart

Visitor Information: Tel.: +49. (0)711.212.39.89 besucherdienst@hdgbw.de